

POTOMAC RIVER JAZZ CLUB

Board of Directors Meeting

20 May 2017

At Calvary Lutheran Church in Silver Spring, MD

prior to the performance by Neville Dickie and the Conservatory Classic Jazz Band

Attendance: Tim Onasch, Chuck Enlind, Joel Albert, Lois Beaver and Bill McFadden.

Call to Order: 1:45PM

The next two events at Rosensteel Hall will be the Starvation Army Jazz Band on June 11 and Hal's Bayou Jazz Band on July 9. Lois Beaver will do the publicity for the July 9 event. Dixieland Direct will play for the club on Sunday, December 3 at Rosensteel Hall which will be the last PRJC event of 2017.

Joel Albert mentioned the recommendation from members David and Suzanne Joseph that the PRJC involve the swing dance clubs in the greater DC region as a way to potentially increase the club's membership. There are approximately 25 dance studios in the region. An effort will be made to contact the dance clubs and studios to promote the club and to make their members aware of the PRJC.

Joel will follow up with Elie Cossa regarding a slogan for the club following the recent invitation in the PRJC Tailgate Ramblings for members to submit suggestions for a club slogan.

The total club membership stands at 337 members. For the May 2017 Neville Dickie event, 37 individuals attended, $750 was taken in and $1,200 was paid to the band members.

A more extensive meeting of the Board will be held on June 11, prior to the Starvation Army event. Financial matters will be discussed and reported at that meeting.

Meeting Adjourned: 1:55PM
